Wednesday, June 27, 2007

EVENT DESCRIPTION

Proving that alternative transportation can be cost efficient, convenient . . . and fun, we invite you to join us for The Seventh Annual Great 55th Street Egg-less Relay hosted by Boulder East Community Transportation Options.

Hundreds of employees from various companies will compete in this contest of wills and coordination that pits corporate teams of three bikers and one pedestrian in a timed relay event. Each participant balances an egg in a spoon, held from their mouth, while negotiating an obstacle course for the coveted Boulder East Great 55th Street Egg Relay Trophy. Awards for the fastest and most spirited teams (costumes encouraged!) with lunch and prize drawings.

There will be plenty of thrills and spills to enjoy, all in recognition of Walk and Bike to Work Day on Wednesday, June 27, 2007.

Register your company team this year! Challenge last year's winner for the trophy or win an award. Registration begins June 1st and will fill up!
